

Procedure for Transferring Shares from a Deceased Shareholder

Spouse or survivor needs to get:

- Certified copy of the death certificate
- Certificate of appointment as executor
- Set of stock transfer forms
- When completing the Stock Power form, list names of children and number of shares.

You do not need a separate Stock Power for each child. You do need to complete individual Stock Transfer forms for each distribution.